

Questions and Answers – Part 3

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

II. Pessimistic attitudes are habits. The further we go in, the harder it is to break. It is also sin. Decide people are no good. (Philippians 4:8; Proverbs 15:15, 30; Romans 8:28; Jeremiah 17:5; Job 15:15; Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:27)

III. Overcome a fear of witnessing rooted in intellectualism by trusting in the gospel as the power of God for salvation. (Romans 1:16)

IV. Communicate acceptance to unwed mothers. The blood of Christ cleanses us from all sin.

V. On failure.

A. Do not fear your failures.

B. Keep moving. God will make us walk in dignity. (Leviticus 26:13)

C. Keep confessing. (Hebrews 2:9; Psalm 34:5)

VI. Submit to authorities. (Romans 13:1-2)

VII. Hate sin by learning to recognize where it leads: destruction. Learn that God wants you to obey because he loves you. (Genesis 4:7; Romans 8:32)

VIII. God wants to guide us, so it is right to ask him for it.

IX. The only basis we have for finding out problems in others is knowing that we have their heart and they love us. (Proverbs 28:23; Leviticus 19:17; Ezekiel 3:20)

X. If a person does not turn you on, do not marry him or her. Get to know that person. (Luke 2:52)

XI. Get to know a person spiritually subtly. Ask general questions.

XII. Christians make decisions on social issues by voting their conscience.

XIII. To believe in the name of Jesus means to believe in his person, character and attributes.

XIX. There are some things God will not do for us, such as repent. We need to make the choice of God to experience his strength.

XX. Explain the power of the Scriptures through personal testimony and do not worry about defending the Scriptures. (2 Timothy 3:17)

XXI. Jesus would probably not carry a gun. There is a Scriptural basis for killing. (Exodus 20-21; Leviticus 21-22; 1 Samuel 14-15; Malachi 3:6; Colossians 2:9)

XXII. There is no place in Scripture that gives license for people to break the law in the name of peace. (Romans 13:1-2; 1 Peter 3).

XXIII. The weight of the Scripture teaches eternal security. This is not license to sin. (Hebrews 6; 10; Jude 4)

XXIX. Temptation is no sin. (Hebrews 4:15)

XXX. Know that Jesus bought you to conquer self-condemnation.

XXXI. False positive-ness is dangerous.
