

Objectives of the Ministry

Lorne Sanny

I. Introduction.

II. What the Lord may want the Navigators to do today.

A. Determining this involves:

1. The Word of God.
2. Providential circumstances.
3. An inner conviction of the Holy Spirit.

B. The reason there is a Navigator work today is that certain promises have been claimed.

C. Building stones for the Navigator ministry.

1. The Word of God.
2. The disciplined life.
3. Follow up.
4. Producing reproducers.
5. The training of spiritually qualified laity.

a. The church is not being trained because laity are not being trained.

b. The great need of today is to train laymen that they may reach others.

c. This leads to the overall objective of the Navigators.

D. The vision of the Navigators is developing and hard to put into writing.

E. The overall objective of the Navigators is to contribute to the fulfillment of the Great Commission by producing reproducers in every nation.

III. Problems.

A. There is a problem that this is a little narrow and may seem a little arrogant

B. There is a problem of different gifts - not every Christian will become a producer of reproducers.

IV. The goal.

A. The goal is to demonstrate producing reproducers in areas where the work is.

B. The immediate objective is to simply produce new laborers through evangelism particularly personal, un-programmed but carefully planned with program potential.

1. This does not mean making more Navigators.

2. It means developing a person to their fullest extent and calling.

C. Expectations for disciplinarians.

1. A personal life growing in the knowledge of God.

2. A Scriptural family life related to the local church.

3. A personal primary ministry.

4. A contribution to the body of Christ at large.

D. The goal is results not activity. The underscored word is “produce.”

Application questions

1. What is the great need of the church today, and how do the Navigators fit into that need?

2. What is the immediate goal of the Navigators? How does this characterize them as a group?

3. What challenges you personally about the Navigator objectives? Explain.
