

Questions and Answers

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

II. Those who love the Lord do everything they do as a part of ministry.

III. Kick the habit by recognizing it is sin, ask God for help, fill your mind with God's Word and turn your head. (1 Corinthians 10:13)

IV. You can know you have true salvation because he said you have it. Trust in his Word as being final and complete. (1 John 5:11-12)

V. Revival happens when we go back to the basics: Scripture memory, evangelism, etc.

VI. Passing on the fire to your kids: start early on, pray more every night, have some standards, spend more time with them, start where you are.

VII. God wants us to know his will. Stay in the book, listen to others, stay open and be obedient.

VIII. It is a costly ministry to pour your life into someone and then see them fall off.

IX. A man must exercise spiritual oversight in his family. He needs to take the lead in love.

X. Pay should be a part of taking a job.

XI. Repentance is not preached much because people are scared to preach it. Others think it is unnecessary for salvation. Repentance is a change of mind and conduct. (Luke 13:4; Matthew 3:2-8)

XII. Masturbation is cheating your wife.

XIII. Pray and ask God to remove mental instability.

XIV. We do not need to allow child tragedy to continue to affect us. (Isaiah 43:18)

XV. Justification comes only from Jesus' death on the cross.

XVI. When we die we most likely go into his presence.

XVII. Failure in a divorce does not permit one from being in a governing position, but it doesn't prevent someone from ministering. (1 Timothy 3; Titus)

XVIII. Divorce does not keep one from remarriage, but one should remarry a believer.

XIX. The Proverbs tell us we should discipline our children because we love them.

XX. There is no shortage of spiritual leaders today.

XXI. If Jesus was speaking today, he would say "follow me."

XXII. Do not do a job that requires you to do wrong.

- XXIII. Always love and never give up on teenagers.
- XXIV. Quit being undisciplined. You will be disciplined when you know you need it.
- XXV. Sometimes it is worth contacting congressmen.
- XXVI. We have no reason to gripe about our country when we do not vote.
- XXVII. Children need to be monitored with their television use.
- XXVIII. Sometimes birth control in marriage is advisable.
- XXIX. It is not pride to speak up with someone who is straying.
- XXX. People may fail us, but God will not.
- XXXI. Cutting credit cards is a good way to become debt free.
- XXXII. Forgive your parents for their wrong. Resentments keep us from being what God wants us to be.
- XXXIII. Accountability has to do not just with spiritual disciplines but with life.
- XXXIV. To witness in a secular workplace love people.
- XXXV. Most problems we have are self-imposed.
- XXXVI. We can get better in the Christian life as we let Christ reflect more of his life in us. (1 John 5:16-17; 2 Corinthians 4:16)
- XXXVII. No one is entirely satisfied with their intake of Scripture, but God has something in mind for us to keep going.
- XXXVIII. Jesus loved us enough to die for us and cover our sins. (1 Peter 4:8)
- XXXIX. The gifts have not ceased. (1 Corinthians 12)
- XL. Healing is a gift for a specific time.
- XLI. Pride keeps a man from giving attention to his wife and children.
- XLII. We should take men to court who do not live up to their end of the deal to bring justice. It is different with a believer. (2 Corinthians 6)
- XLIII. Making sure your children know you love them is the key to a strong relationship with your children.
- XLIV. Learn to say no.
- XLV. Success is to do what God wants you to do.
- XLVI. Do not tithe when you cannot pay your bills.
- XLVII. God does a good job of looking out for us. (2 Corinthians 5:10)

Application questions:

1. Which question and answer did you find most valuable?

2. Which question might you have answered differently?

3. What lingering questions do you have? What are some good resources you can use to find out more?
